ONLINE SAFETY WEB AGREEMENT

I want to use our computer and the Internet. I agree to follow these rules, and my parents agree to help me follow these rules:

- I will not give my name, address, telephone number, school, or my parents' names, address or telephone number to anyone I meet on the computer. I will not fill out any form online that asks me for any information about myself or my family without asking my parents first.
- I understand that some people online pretend to be someone else. Sometimes they pretend to be kids, when they're really grownups. I will tell my parents about people I meet online. I will also tell my parents before I answer any e-mails I get from or send e-mails to new people I meet online. I will not open any e-mail attachments or download anything without asking my parents' permission.
- If someone asks me to do something I am not supposed to do, I will tell my parents.
- I will not call anyone I meet online, send them anything, or meet them in person, unless my parents say it's okay.
- I will not buy or order anything online without asking my parents, or give out any credit card information.
- I won't say bad things about people online, be mean to anyone, or use bad language online. I will not get into arguments or fights online. If someone tries to start an argument or fight with me, I won't answer him or her and will tell my parents.
- If I see something I do not like or that I know my parents don't want me to see, I will log off immediately.
- I will not use something I found online and pretend it's mine.
- I know that my parents want to make sure I'm safe online, and I will listen to them when they ask me not to do something. I won't keep secrets from my parents about what I do or see on the computer – even if I'm worried about getting in trouble.

I promise to follow these rules.
