4 MARKETPLACE

4.1 Subscription

To access the Marketplace, the User must create an account. By creating this account, You agree to protect the information on your account and accept full responsibility for use of your account by Yourself or a third party.

The User is responsible for any action carried out using their account.

4.2 Characteristics

As the host of Listings published on the Marketplace, the Company cannot be held responsible for the quality, safety, adequacy or accuracy of the content of any Listing, nor for the ability of Sellers to deliver the corresponding Service.

The Company is not responsible for the content of Listings nor for the smooth running of the service.

The Company is considered a third party in the contract between the Seller and the Client and is not involved in its execution. However, the Company may in some cases described in section 4.5 mediate disputes.

The Seller shall invoice the Client for its Provision, and shall respect the all applicable laws concerning invoices. The Seller is notified that the price displayed to the Users includes European Value Added Tax and will set their prices accordingly.

The Seller invoices the Client directly.

Ensuring delivery of Provision as described in the Listing is the sole responsibility of the Seller.

It is forbidden for Sellers to bypass the Marketplace and offer their services directly to the Users.

4.3 Content

The Listings and reviews posted by Clients regarding Listings are not reviewed by the company. They may be moderated after their publication if they are deemed offensive or violate the law or ethical standards (abuse, defamation, insults, out of context comments, etc.). Once a Listing or review has been deemed inappropriate, the Company reserves the right to edit or delete the Listing or review concerned.

The Listings and their reviews are not vetted by the Company. The Company may, however, moderate them if necessary.

The Company also reserves the right not to put publish a Listing deemed inappropriate or invalid.

The Seller authorizes the Company to use the content of their Listing(s) as part of the operation of the Marketplace, or for promoting said Listing or our Services or those of third parties. The Company guarantees that such use of Listings will not be defamatory or abusive.

We may use the Listing content.

4.4 Cost of the service

Access to the Marketplace and searching for Listings are free. The payment between Client and Seller follows the guidelines described in section 4.5. In no case may the Seller request additional payment during the Provision. Once the transaction has been completed between the Seller and the Client, the Company will charge the Seller for its matchmaking service and the payment fees incurred. Value Added Tax (VAT) will be added to this invoice in accordance with European regulations.

The amount of the commission taken by the Company may vary and is indicated on the Marketplace when the Seller posts their Listing. The amount of the payment fees incurred is also variable and depends on the payment methods chosen by the Client and the Seller.

The Seller will receive the amount stated in the Listing, minus the commission taken by the Company, the payment fees and the VAT.

The Company invoices the Seller.

4.5 Acceptance of a Listing

The User and the Seller agree upon the time and date of the Provision via the internal messaging system provided by the Company. The Company recommends that this agreement be reached by both parties before accepting the Listing.

After the acceptance of a Listing by a Client, the Seller has 48 hours to confirm and accept the Delivery Date specified by the Customer. In the case that a Listing contains training lasting several days, the Delivery Date will be defined as the date of the first course. If the Provision is not accepted by both parties, the Client will not be charged. Otherwise, payment will be debited upon confirmation by the Seller, and initially put in an escrow account managed by a third party secure payment provider.

Once the Delivery Date has passed, the Customer is asked to evaluate the Service. If there is no dispute within 24 hours, the Company will unblock the escrow account managed by the third party secure payment operator in order to permit the Seller to be paid in full as described in the 4.4 section. After this initial matchmaking, the Client and the Seller are directly responsible for the smooth continuation of the Provision.

In the case of a dispute by a Client within 24 hours of the delivery Date of the Service, payment will remain blocked in the escrow account pending resolution of the dispute via mediation organized by the Company. Following this mediation, the Company will conduct a partial or total refund of the Client and/or a partial or total payment to the Seller, at the discretion of the Company.

Mediation by the Company is used to resolve potential disputes.

4.6 Right of withdrawal and/or cancellation

As cancelling courses is detrimental to Sellers, especially if late, the Marketplace offers a fair cancellation system to compensate for the potential withdrawal of the Customer.

For each Listing, the Seller may choose a “Strict” or “Flexible” cancellation option. Each Listing option is associated with a minimum cancellation time from the Delivery Date. The Seller’s refund and payment percentage (excluding payment fees) depend on the cancellation option chosen by the Seller, the cancellation date of the Client, and the delay mentioned above.

These rates are available on the Marketplace.

The Company reminds all parties that the right of withdrawal cannot be used once the Provision has begun.

Note: cancelling a course may incur costs.
